BENCHMARKING THE CANADIAN BUSINESS PRESENCE IN EAST ASIA

Why has Canada's trade with the East Asian economies declined at the same time that these economies have been booming? What can be done about this performance?

Six of Canada's leading authorities on East Asia and international business – Victor Falkenheim, Keith Head, William V. Rapp, John Ries, A.E. Safarian and Lorna Wright – analyze Canadian trade with and investment in China, Japan and Southeast Asia.

Copies of this study, part of a series of HongKong Bank of Canada Papers on Asia, can be obtained from:
